

HARRY REID SILVER STATE RESEARCH AWARD

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Harry Reid Silver State Research Award was created in 2001 by UNLV President Carol C. Harter to honor the significant contributions of Senator Reid to research at UNLV. The award is funded by a grant from the UNLV Foundation.

A committee composed of faculty and community representatives will evaluate the nominations and make a recommendation to the President. The President will make the final decision.

All full-time UNLV faculty members are eligible to be nominated for this award. The winner will receive a $10,000 stipend and a medal.

APPLICATION

The award is open to full-time faculty members who are engaged in significant research that meets at least one of three criteria:

- Directly and positively affects the economic growth and development of Nevada;
- Addresses a pressing social need in the community;
- Demonstrably advances significant scholarship in an academic field of knowledge.

A letter of nomination and a completed nomination form must be submitted in writing on behalf of the nominee. Nominations must be submitted to the Kathleen Robins, the Senior Advisor to the President, FDH-711 no later than 5:00 p.m., Monday, March 2, 2005.

If you have questions about the Harry Reid Silver State Research Award, please contact Dr. Robins at Ext. 1704.
